Hello "Dixie Chapter Folks"

I am honored to have been elected as your chapter director once again. Thank you for your vote of confidence. First item on the agenda is a "BIG" thank you to Don McClair for his strong leadership during the past two years. His dedication and knowledge is an example of what a chapter director should be. The next "thank you" is to Bill McGowen for serving as our assistant director for two years and for coming back as our secretary for the next two. And kudos to Bill and his wife Yvonne for making arrangements for our "after the holidays party". It is always great fun for all who attend. Thanks to Jack Horvath for the outstanding recording of "the minutes" as our secretary these past two years. Jack has agreed to continue in his appointed position as club chaplain, however. Thank you Jerry Richstein for continuing on as the chapter treasurer as well as membership chairman , and for the outstanding job he always does in both offices. And thank you to Bob Stone for accepting the nomination for director and now agreeing to become our club "sales guru" (a/k/a "store keeper"). As for the upcoming year WE have lots on the calendar for 2019. First on the agenda is our annual "Bowl-A-Rama" and monthly meeting on February 17th. Then, of course the next really BIG event will be the 38th annual "Peach Blossom B.O.P.C." show April 26th and 27th. We will need the support and participation of every member to make this a success. You will find more information on this event elsewhere in this and upcoming issues of the "DVC". The BCA National meet June 12-15 in Oklahoma will find several of our chapter members in attendance, and we always encourage attending this Buick "family reunion". These are just a few of the main events for the first half of 2019. Our assistant director, J.D., has plans for interesting venue(s) for the March and April meetings. Of course, all these interesting and fun activities can't be done without the planning and input from the general membership, in other words we NEED you! Apologies for the "long winded" director's message, I'll try to be a tad less verbose in the future here and in our meeting

Peace, God Bless and Go (tour in a) Buick

Bruce "Old 3013"

Tom Lynde

Hi Folks,

We are in the dead of winter and many of our Buicks are slumbering the cold weather away, safe and snug under cover and in our garages. An unusually warm early January day prompted me to crack open the garage and free up the Electra for a drive through the neighborhood, putting a big ol' smile on my face.

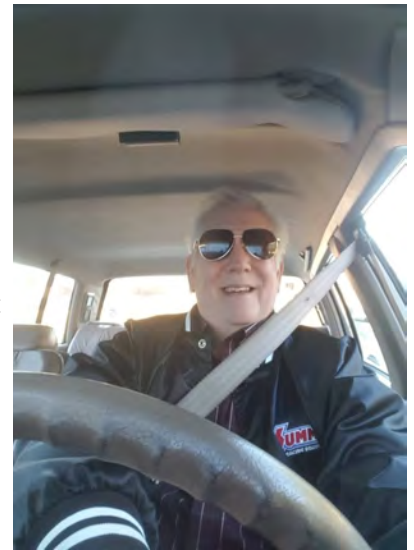

But, now she is back in the garage waiting for spring under her cover. Car show season is just a few short months away, and there are lots of great American roads to be explored along the way, too.

For now, there are plenty of activities with the Dixie Chapter to keep busy. Make plans to attend the annual Bowl-a-rama at Woodstock Lanes in February. If the weather is cooperative, drive that Buick and give it some mid-winter exercise. Don't forget to wear your name tag!

See y'all at the lanes

Happy Buicking,

Tom

Dixie Chapter Holiday Party at Ippolito's

A couple of dozen Dixie Chapter members turned out for the annual post-holiday party at Ippolito's in Suwanee. A great meal and good time of jovial fellowship were enjoyed by all, and the annual gift exchange was a rousing success. Many thanks to Bill and Yvonne McGowen for planning the event. Please make plans to attend next year's gathering and join in the festivities,

Don McClair Passes the gavel to incoming Dixie Chapter director Bruce Kile

CAR QUIZ ANSWER

William Durant ran a bowling alley, North Flint Recreation, on North Saginaw Street near Hamilton Avenue, not far from the Buick complex he had created decades earlier. He even added Flint's first drive-in restaurant, the Horseshoe Bar, to the facility. While obviously heartsick over his financial reversals, he seemed enthusiastic about his new business and planned to create a nationwide string of bowling alleys. Unfortunately, he died before bringing his plans to fruition.

PEACH BLOSSOM BOP&C UPDATE

J.D. Westfall

"Hello Dixie Chapter Buick Enthusiasts:

The 2019 BOPC is coming up soon. It is our year to host it, and planning is well underway. It will be April 26-27 at the Piedmont Church in Marietta. We need volunteers to fill the goodies bag, set up the parking lot Friday afternoon, enjoy the Friday night festivities that Bruce and Shar are putting together, and for registering and routing participants Saturday morning. Please let Bruce and/or J D know how you can help.

There is another area we need your help. We need each and every one to solicit one sponsor for the show. A sponsor will get their name on the back of the meet T-shirt when they donate $100 cash/check or $100 of door prizes. Goodies to go in the bags (bags already sourced) are welcome here as well, but we need your help getting a $100 sponsor. Think of companies that participate in our car hobby. Examples of potential sponsors can be:

- Auto Parts stores (NAPA, O'Reilly, AutoZone, etc.)
- Tire dealers
- Transmission shops
- Auto Repair shops
- Auto Insurance agencies
- Auto Restoration shops
- Body Shops
- Grocery stores
- Hair salons
- Massage Parlors (yes, us mature people like massages!)
- Others
- Others

We need this Sponsor activity wrapped up by Feb 28th so we can get the Meet T-Shirts ordered.
